Advice to Parents

Help is at hand

- Is your son/daughter due to transfer to secondary or upper school?
 - Are you uncertain about the school admissions process?
 - Is the application form unclear?
 - Are you unsure which school is best for your child?
 - Do you want to know more about the options that are available to you?
 - Do you want to know more about the schools before making your preferences?
 - Do you want to know more about how school places are decided upon?

These and many other questions about school admissions may apply to you. If so, you can now approach an independent advisory service for support and guidance. Through Dorset's Parent Partnership Service, independent Choice Advisors have been appointed who are on hand to provide advice and help to parent. Should you wish to contact a Choice Advisor:
